

NEWSLETTER

MANGALAYATAN UNIVERSITY
JABALPUR
Learn Today to Lead Tomorrow

THE NSS BULLETIN
VOL. 2 - 2022

It gives me immense happiness to learn that the NSS Unit of Mangalayatan University, Jabalpur is releasing its Second Newsletter The NSS Bulletin. The newsletters are the sources of inspiration for students and faculty to express their innovation. It acts as springs for nurturing of talents and future growth. I'm sure this approach and another step towards academic excellence will help in bringing out and honing the diverse skills and abilities of the students. I congratulate and wish all the best to the whole team for the initiative.

Prof. Dr. Vineta K. Saluja
Pro-Vice Chancellor
Mangalayatan University, Jabalpur

It is a matter of great pride that after the inauguration of the NSS Newsletter last year, the NSS Unit is all set to publish its second newsletter.

I have always been keen supporter of overall development of personality of a student and the NSS gives a platform to the students to evolve as an informed and responsible citizens.

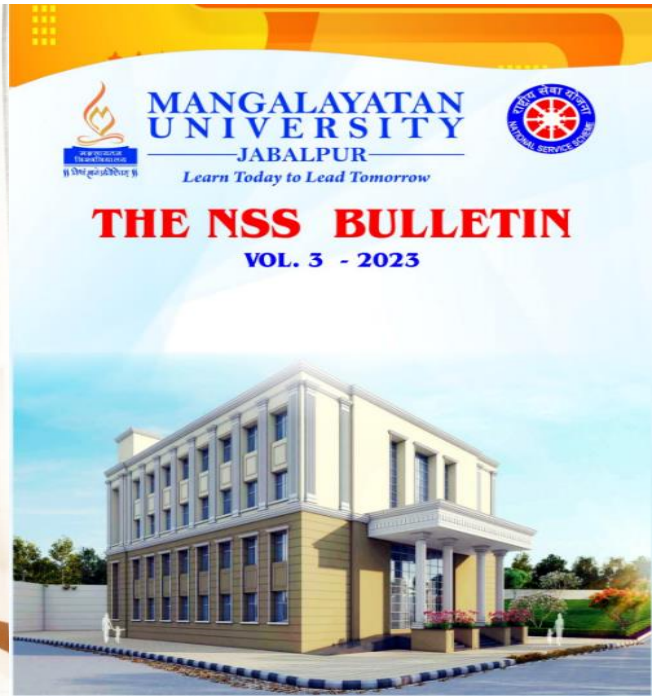

This Newsletter is dedicated to the 75th Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and the struggles of our freedom fighters, our rich Indian history and culture. I hope the newsletter becomes a source of information to the people.

I want to congratulate the NSS family, faculty members and the editorial board for their remarkable contribution in this newsletter.

All the best for your future endeavor's

Lt. Gen. (Dr). Anil Misra
Vice Chancellor
Mangalayatan University, Jabalpur

NH 30, Mandla Road, Near Sharda Devi Temple, Richai, Bareilly, Jabalpur (M.P.) 483001
Website : www.mangalayatan.ac.in

MANGALAYATAN UNIVERSITY
JABALPUR
Learn Today to Lead Tomorrow

THE NSS BULLETIN
VOL. 3 - 2023

A grid of various news articles and photographs from the NSS Bulletin. The articles are in Hindi and cover various NSS activities, including social service projects, awareness campaigns, and student achievements. The photos show students participating in these activities, often wearing blue NSS uniforms.

A collage of photographs and graphics showcasing NSS activities. The images include students participating in group activities, holding Indian tricolors, and performing social service. There are also decorative graphics, including a large key symbol and a colorful floral design. The text in the collage is in Hindi, highlighting the university's commitment to social service and community development.